The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, June 30, 1763. [N°. 947.]

An Account of the Expedition againſt Manilla; and a Journal of the Siege; under the Command of Rear-Admiral CORNISH, and Brigadier-General DRAPER. Communicated by Mr. Waters, Midſhipman on board the Seahorſe, a young Gentleman not 17 Years of Age.

September 23, 1762.

OUR whole Fleet arrived ſafe in Manilla Bay, except the South-Sea Caſtle Bomb, and Admiral Stevens's Storeſhip, which parted company before we made the Philippine Iſlands. We anchored ſo late in the evening, that no landing could be attempted that night; all that could be done was to ſend the maſters of the ſquadron to ſound in ſhore, to fix on a proper place for the deſcent, clear of rocks and ſhoals.

24th. This morning a Spaniſh officer was ſent on board the Admiral, with orders to enquire the reaſon of our coming into their port, whether we had been drove in by diſtreſs or preſumed to come in a hoſtile manner to their impregnable city; informing the Admiral and General that the cuſtom was, never to admit foreign ſhips into their port, without firſt having permiſſion. The Spaniards knew nothing of the war, and might be unprepared for us; but inſtead of diſcovering any ſigns of fear, when the General told him the cauſe of our boldneſs, he ſmiled, and ſaid that the enterprize was raſh, that he really believed their walls and ditch ſufficiently protected them againſt our moſt vigorous efforts; but this ſecurity cauſed the diſtreſs into which they fell, for it is very plain they might have put themſelves into a much better poſture of defence, and made it a dear purchaſe to us. The General being deſirous to reconnoitre the ground as ſoon as the Spaniſh Officer was diſmiſſed, upon which he was attended by the Admiral and other principal officers on board the frigates; we ſailed cloſe by Fort Caſtle, till we came to a church called Malata, about one mile to the Southward of Manilla. This ſpot, from its ſituation, anſwered our purpoſe, the General determined it for the landing; in the duſk of the evening his Majeſty's 79th regiment, with the marines and artillery, were landed, with two field pieces under the fire of the frigates, without meeting any oppoſition. This was no ſmall point gained, and convinced us the enemy knew but little of the ſcience of war, had they (as was expected) placed a field-piece or two on the beach, they muſt have killed a great number of our men.

25th. This morning the 79th regiment advanced to a church called Hermita, within 900 yards of the fort, where the General eſtabliſhed his head-quarters; at eleven o'clock Capt. Fletcher took poſſeſſion of St. Jago church, which was an excellent place for the engineers to obſerve the enemy's works from its top. Upon our troops advancing, the enemy began a briſk fire, which continued all the remainder of the day; the General was reſolved to defend this poſt, and ſo prevented the enemy from burning the village between us and the fort; thereby ſecuring to our army good quarters, without which the ſiege could not be carried on in that rainy ſeaſon, for the ſoil is a thick mire, ſo that the natives ſupport their houſes ſix feet from the ground by poſts.

26th. The enemy, ſenſible of their error in ſuffering us to take St. Jago church, advanced in the morning to the Bagumbay, a church 150 yards from the fort, to diſlodge us from St. Jago, but were ſoon beat back. The enemy's daſtardly behaviour induced the General to ſummon the Town; but the Archbiſhop replied, that the garriſon was too ſtrong of Europeans to be reduced, beſides 15000 Indians. At Night began to play with two eight inch mortars.

27th. The Admiral landed 550 ſeamen, under the command of Captains Collins of the Weymouth, Pitchford of the America, and Ourry of the Panther.

28th. In the morning the Adm. ſent the Governor's nephew aſhore; he was taken in the Bay, on his paſſage to Manilla from the outward bound Galleon, arrived on the coaſt (which the Panther of 60, and the Argo of 30 Guns, were diſpatched in queſt of.) The General ſent Lieutenant Fryer with a flag of truce to conduct him to the fort; but a body of furious Indians ruſhed out of the gate, and cut Mr. Fryer to pieces and mortally wounded the young gentleman: To-night the Engineers produced a matted blind along the ground, marked out for the battery, to ſcreen our workmen in the day from the enemy.

29th. The Elizabeth of 60 guns, Commodore Tiddeman, and the Falmouth of 50, Capt. Brereton, run as nigh to the fort as poſſible, and began cannonading. At night our men got two Royals up, and began with them, as well as the 8 inch mortars; the enemy returned ſeveral ſhells.

30th. The South-Sea Caſtle arrived, which made ſucceſs appear the more certain, as ſhe had all the intrenching tools, and a reinforcement of Seapoys, and the Nabob's Topaſſes, or Black Soldiers.

Oct. 1ſt. The wind coming to blow very hard, the South-Sea Caſtle drove on ſhore. This was not unlucky for our troops, as they were immediately ſupplied, and the ſtores they were in great need of; otherwiſe the high ſurf would have prevented the boats from landing.

2d. Our engineers got the guns mounted for battering the baſtion St. Diego.

3d. At day-break our batteries were opened againſt the baſtion, and in five hours time ruined its defences, and diſmounted ſeveral of their guns; four of our guns were kept employed all night, to prevent the enemy from repairing the breach.

4th. The Spaniards, judging they muſt ſoon be expoſed to an aſſault, reſolved their Indians ſhould fall upon our troops in the dark. Accordingly, in the middle of the night, 6000 ſallied out quietly, till they came to the ſeamens quarters; then they began ſhouting, and running about in ſuch diſorder, that they were preſently forced to retire; regardleſs of the conſtant firing which was kept upon them, they continued their effort till day light, and then retreated in confuſion. During the fray, a ſtrong body of Spaniards forced our Seapoy guards at the Bagumbay fort; but a body of our men being ſent to retake it, the enemy's loſs in this affair was conſiderable. The Indians were ſo diſcouraged at this day's treatment, that ſeveral thouſands of them returned to their reſpective homes.

5th. The breach being practicable, and all the defences ruined, the General gave the neceſſary orders for the aſſault, privately to the principal officers only, fearing that any public notice relating thereto, might be carried to the enemy by deſerters or ſpies.

6th. At four this morning, the 79th regiment, with the Company's troops and the ſeamen, marched up to St. Jago's church. A little after day light, a volunteer party of ſixty men from the different corps, appointed for the forlorn hope, headed by Lieut. Ruſſel, of the 79th regiment, mounted the breach, and was in poſſeſſion of the baſtion before the enemy had time, after the alarm, to aſſemble the garriſon. The General immediately followed with the reſt of the troops, whoſe preſence had ſo good an effect, that it fired the men with bravery. The Spaniards flew to their churches and houſes, whence a tolerable reſiſtance was made for ſome time: Many, to avoid the fury of the conquerors, jumped into the river, and about 300 were drowned. The Governor and principal officers flew to the citadel, but ſoon ſurrendered priſoners at diſcretion. A party of our marines took poſſeſſion alſo of Cavite; one hundred refuſing to ſurrender at the Royal Gate, were put to the ſword.

A Liſt of the Number of Men landed, killed and wounded at the Siege of Manilla.

FRANCIS WATERS.

In another Account of this great Acquiſition, relating the Tranſactions of the 4th of October, publiſhed in the London Gazette, is the following, "About 3 Hours before Day 1000 "of the Indians attacked the Cantonment of the Seamen. "They were encouraged to this Attempt by the inceſſant "Rains, in which they flattered themſelves our Fire Arms "would be uſeleſs. Their Approach was favoured by a "great Number of thick Buſhes that grew upon the Side of "a Rivulet, which they paſſed in the Night, and, by keeping "cloſe, eluded the Vigilance of the Patroles. Upon the "Alarm Col. Monſon, and Capt. Fletcher, with the Pic-"quets, were diſpatched to the Aſſiſtance of the Seamen, "who very ſenſibly kept firm in their Poſts, and were con-"tented to repulſe them, till Day-break, when a freſh Pic-"quet of the 79th Regiment appearing upon the Indians "right Flank, they fled, were purſued and diſperſed with "the Loſs of 300 Men. Had their Skill or Weapons been "equal to their Strength and Ferocity, it might have coſt us "dear. Although armed chiefly with Bows, Arrows, and "Lances, they advanced up to the very Muzzles of our "Pieces, repeated their Aſſaults, and died like wild Beaſts, "gnawing the Bayonets."

B E R L I N, April 5.

IT is hardly poſſible to expreſs the Joy with which the Inhabitants of this City received their Sovereign, who arrived here the 30th of laſt Month, in perfect Health. They pierced the Air with repeated Acclamations of, LONG LIVE OUR KING AND FATHER! To which his Majeſty moſt affectionately vouchſafed to Anſwer, LONG LIVE MY DEAREST SUBJECTS, MY BELOVED CHILDREN! In this Manner he was uſhered to the Palace, where he ſupped with the Queen, and all the Royal Family. The next Day he received the Compliments of the Nobility, foreign Miniſters, &c. and dined with Duke Ferdinand of Brunſwick, who arrived here from Magdebourg the Day before his Majeſty. In the Afternoon his Majeſty, accompanied by that Prince, went to viſit the Princes and Princeſſes, his Brothers and Siſters. The greateſt Rejoicings have continued ever ſince, and laſt Night the whole City was magnificently Illuminated.

L O N D O N, April 28.

The Auguſta Yacht is fitting out with all poſſible Expedition, and will ſail in a few Days for Holland, in order to bring over the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick, to eſpouſe a Princeſs, who is juſtly diſtinguiſhed by the Character of being one of the moſt amiable young Ladies in all the World.

On Saturday Afternoon laſt a Body of Sailors aſſembled on Tower-Hill, and having heard that ſeveral Thieves and Pick-Pockets had diſguiſed themſelves in Sailors Habits, they thought of the following Expedient to diſcover whether any of theſe Gentry had got amongſt them, by making every Man lay his Compaſs; two Fellows ſeemed to know little about the Matter, on which they were aſked, How do you put your Ship about? They replied, Their Ship was never put about all the Time they belonged to her: The Tars then ſtripped the two pretended Sailors, tied them to a Poſt, each Man gave them a Dozen Laſhes a-piece, they were ſent about their Buſineſs.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, March 10.

The firſt Lieutenant of the [illegible] went but a few Days ago to ſhoot Gulls; but not having killed any, the Purſer laughed at him, and told him he was but a bad Marksman. The Lieutenant anſwered, he could ſhoot as well as any Perſon in the Garriſon. The Purſer replied, I'll hold you Half a Guinea that you don't hit me with a ſingle Ball at the Diſtance of 40 Yards: Done, ſays the Lieutenant, and let us immediately go aſhore and try. Accordingly they both went aſhore to the Dock-yard, and the Lieut. meaſured out the Ground; and there being a Wooden Horſe for the Support of the Cables, he reſted his Piece on it and aimed at the Purſer at the Dock-gate. The Centinel aſked him what he was going about? He anſwered, Only to ſhoot an old Purſer, that is weary of his Life. He then called to the Purſer (who ſtood facing him) to know if he was ready? who anſwered, he was; on which he fired, and the Ball tore the Purſer's Foot and Leg, in ſo terrible a Manner, that the Surgeon was obliged to cut off his Leg immediately: A Mortification enſued, and the old Man next Day gave up the Ghoſt. The Lieutenant yielded up himſelf a Priſoner directly, and Yeſterday he was Tried and found Guilty; but his Sentence is reſpited till his Majeſty's Pleaſure is known. —He ſaid but little at his Trial: His own Captain and ſeveral others, gave him a very good Character.

Letters from France adviſe, that the King of Spain will not be any great Loſer by our taking the Manillas, as the Whole of that Trade was in the Hands of the Jeſuits. A Propoſal was made to the late King of Spain to put a Stop to that Trade, it being a Loſs to the King and the Spaniſh Nation; but the Jeſuits had Art enough to prevent its taking Effect.

A Squadron of Ships of War is getting ready to ſail for the Mediterranean, with the ſeveral Officers appointed to command in the Iſland of Minorca, and with the Squadron many Tranſports will ſail, laden with great Quantities of warlike Stores and Proviſions; but we do not hear of any Troops going there from England or Ireland.

A Number of People, by Royal Bounty, will very ſhortly embark for America, to ſettle there with their Families.

The laſt Letters from Spain bring Advice, that ſome Ships, with Troops on board, were ſailed for the Havannah.

A Letter from Paris, dated April 18, ſays, "An infinite Number of young People are under Engagement to embark from Breſt, in the Courſe of next Month, for the new diſcovered Iſland in the Eaſt-Indies."

Several Tranſports are ordered round to Plymouth, to take three Regiments on board, that are ordered to Gibraltar, to relieve Part of the Garriſon of that Place.

It is ſaid the Militia is to be kept on the preſent Eſtabliſhment for three Years; each County to keep up its Compliment of Men, who are to be muſtered and inſtructed in the Military Exerciſe 28 Days in each Year, which are to be appointed by the Officers.

Yeſterday Morning a Gentleman, walking by the Serpentine River in Hyde-Park, was croſſed two or three times by a well-looking young Man, who at laſt made a full Stop before him, and bid him ſtand. The Gentleman upon this demanded what he wanted; to which the poor Man, burſting out into Tears, anſwered, I want to rob you, but can't. The Gentleman's Humanity was ſtruck at ſo great an Inſtance of Senſibility, and aſſuring the Man he might be under no Apprehenſion, enquired into the Motives which induced him to take ſo dangerous a Courſe; when it appeared that the poor young Fellow had been a Midſhipman on board a Man of War, but that his Ship being paid off, he was out of all Manner of Employment, and reduced to the utmoſt Diſtreſs, having an infirm Mother to ſupport, beſides a Wife and two Children. The Gentleman was ſo much affected at his Story, that he gave him two Guineas, and diſmiſſed him, with ſome cordial Advice upon the proper Methods to purſue, which the other ſeemed to receive with the moſt lively Marks of Gratitude and Satisfaction.

Part of the Troops now in Portugal will be draughted off for Minorca, in order to garriſon that Fortreſs.

It is now ſaid that the Treaſure, &c. taken at the Manillas, is not ſo great as at firſt reported.

It is ſaid that 18 Boxes of Silver, which the Jeſuits were ſending out of France, have been ſeized.

A Treaty of Commerce between the Courts of Verſailles, Madrid, and London, is talked of, by which great Advantages will accrue to the three Nations.

A Treaty of Marriage is on Foot between the Archduke Peter Leopold of Auſtria, aged 15, and the Princeſs Maria Beatrix, Daughter of the Hereditary Prince of Modena aged Fourteen.

Great Inſurances have been making for ſome Days paſt on a very rich Ship coming from the South-Seas, on which they give 25 Guineas per Cent.

His Pruſſian Majeſty has directed the Pictures of all the great Officers who fell during the late War, to be painted by the beſt Maſters in Germany, in order to adorn a new Room at Potſdam, which is to be called, The Hall of Heroes.

Not a Day or Night paſſes without Robberies, ſuch Swarms of Rogues has the Peace let looſe upon us, which are daily increaſing, as the Ships are paid off.

May 3. On Saturday laſt, John Wilkes, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Ayleſbury, was taken into Cuſtody, by four of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, and committed Priſoner to the Tower, by the Secretaries of State, being charged with writing a Paper publiſhed in the North Briton of Saturday the 23d of April laſt. The ſame Afternoon a Motion was made before the Lord Chief Juſtice of the Court of Common Pleas, Weſtminſter-Hall, for a Habeas Corpus to remove him from Confinement, that he might anſwer to the ſaid Charge in Court. Accordingly this Morning, about Half paſt Ten o' Clock, he was brought in a Coach from the Tower of London, attended by the Deputy Conſtable, and other Officers, over London Bridge, and St. George's Fields, to the Court of Common Pleas, Weſtminſter-Hall (which was much crouded on the Occaſion) in order that he might be admitted to Bail, which he refuſed, pleading by his Council, Mr. Serjeant Glynn, for his Diſcharge. The Point in Debate, which laſted from Eleven o'Clock till a Quarter paſt Two, [illegible] concerning the Validity of his Commitment; and, after ſeveral learned Arguments, it was poſtponed till Friday Morning next, and Mr. Wilkes was remanded back again to the Tower; his Friends, in the mean Time, are to have [illegible]

Acceſs to him. Mr. Wilkes himſelf ſpoke much on the Occaſion.

We are informed, that upon a certain Commoner's Arrival at the Tower, he told the Lieutenant he had a particular Favour to aſk him; which the latter politely aſſured him he might command, if conſiſtent with his Office. He then requeſted he might be lodged in a Room which had never yet been inhabited by a SCOTCH REBEL. The Lieutenant replied, he feared he had made a Requeſt out of his Power to gratify.

Cork, March 24. Saturday laſt one of the People called Levellers or Whiteboys (who was concerned with about 20 others in carrying off William Howay, from the Houſe of his Maſter, John Willington of the County of Tipperary, Eſq; and in barbarouſly cutting his Tongue and Chin, with a Knife, on the 18th Day of February laſt) was capitally convicted at the Aſſizes of Clonmell, and received Sentence of Death, to be executed within two Days.

Glouceſter, April 11. On Saturday laſt the following Addreſs was preſented to Charles Barrow, Eſq; one of our Repreſentatives in Parliament, by Deputation from a public Meeting of a large Number of his Conſtituents, who drew up and ſigned the ſame at the Boothall in this City.

"SIR,

"Alarmed at the late fatal Blow to Liberty, we, a conſiderable Part of the Body of Freemen of this City, animated by a lively Senſe of Gratitude on your Arrival here, have publicly aſſembled to manifeſt our high Eſteem of, and to take this, the earlieſt Opportunity, unanimouſly to return our ſincereſt Thanks, for your upright Conduct in Parliament, on all Occaſions; but more eſpecially for that laſt Inſtance of your watchful Care over our Liberties, by your ſteady and vigorous Oppoſition to a late Bill for laying an additional Duty on Cyder and Perry, by Way of Exciſe; any Extenſion of which having ever been deemed dangerous to the Liberties of a free People.

"However ineffectual thoſe your utmoſt and beſt Endeavours may have proved, yet nevertheleſs you are equally entitled to our warmeſt and moſt grateful Acknowledgments; and will, we are perſuaded, always be remembered by us and others our Fellow-Citizens, with the moſt affectionate and unfeigned Gratitude."

LONDON, April 18. The Indictment againſt Mr. Rice, the Broker, for Forgery, was laid for only 500*l. though he had transferred of the Lady's Stock* 19,900*l. Mr. Fennoulett, one of the Clerks of the South Sea-houſe, was the firſt Witneſs called, who proved the filling up the Letter of Attorney. Mr. Lowth, another Clerk of the South Sea-houſe, proved the filling up the Transfer, ſaw Rice execute it, and ſwore that he witneſſed the ſame. Mr. Ball the Superviſor, proved the Letter of Attorney paſſing the Committee. Mr. Montague, the Deputy Accomptant, acquainted the Court of the Stock being replaced to Mrs. Pierce, after the above fraudulent Transfer. Mrs. Pierce was then called, who being ſhewn the Letter of Attorney, denied it being her Hand writing, and depoſed ſhe never gave him any ſuch Power. No other Witneſs was called on Behalf of the Proſecution. The Court then acquainted Mr. Rice it was his Time to make his Defence, who anſwered he had nothing to ſay, but deſired ſome Gentlemen might be called to his Character, two of which were ſworn, who ſpoke of him as a Perſon of Credit in his Profeſſion. The Court acquainted him, where Proofs were poſitive, Character would have little Weight, ſo no more were called. Mr. Rice then urged, that he had been offered Protection at Cambray, if he would have changed his Religion. He was dreſſed in a Suit of light Grey, trimm'd with Black, and had a Bag Wig on; he was indulg'd with being at the Inner Bar, and was allowed a Chair; ſeemed much affected, and ſhed Tears moſt Part of the Trial.*

About Five in the Evening he was again brought up to the Bar, with the other Priſoners, to receive Sentence of Death, which was paſſed upon them, in a moſt pathetic and moving Manner, by the new Recorder. The Court was not full, owing to the Demand for the Galleries being One Guinea for Front, and Half a Guinea for back Seats.

April 19. Mr. Rice the Broker is not confined in the Cells of Newgate, but is favoured with an Apartment on the Maſter ſide.

Yeſterday Mrs. Rice preſented a Petition to his Majeſty, in Behalf of her Huſband, now under Sentence of Death in Newgate; on Delivery of which ſhe was ſo overcome with Grief, that ſhe fainted away.

There is ſomething ſingular in the Fate of John Turner, a Convict, under Sentence of Death in Newgate; he ſtole a Silver Tankard on Monday laſt, was taken on the Tueſday, ſent to Newgate on the Wedneſday, capitally convicted on the Thurſday, and received Sentence of Death at the Old-Bailey on Friday.

April 21. There were found at the Manillas, among many other Curioſities, and brought here by Col. Draper, eight Copper Plates, on which are engraved a moſt particular Map of the Philippine Iſlands adorned with the Cuſtoms and Habits of the Inhabitants of thoſe Parts, which was done by Order of the Governor, and dedicated to his moſt Catholick Majeſty.

We are informed that Mr. Rice is very ill in his Room, in Newgate, and that not any one Acquaintance is permitted to ſee him.

BOSTON, June 9.

A moſt ſhocking Murder was committed laſt Saturday at Taunton, by a Negro Fellow belonging to Dr. M'Kinſtry;—a Siſter of the Doctor's getting up early in the Morning to iron Clothes, the Negro (after making a Fire) got his Maſter's Horſe, and left him at the Door, and finding an Opportunity took up a hot Flat-iron, with which he ſtruck the Woman on the Back of her Head, and ſtunned her, he repeated the Blow, then dragged her down into the Cellar, and there with an old Ax ſtruck her ſeveral Times; he then took the hot Iron, and rubbed over her Face, ſticking the Point of it into her Eyes, whereby ſhe was ſcorched conſiderably; after he had done this, he took the Horſe and rode off.—The Family ſoon got up and found the Woman in the above Condition; ſhe continued till the Evening of the next Day, and then died. The Negro was purſued, and taken up at Newport, and confeſſed the Fact.—What induced the Fellow to perpetrate this Crime is not known, as he was always treated well, and there had been no Difference with him in the Family.

NEW-PORT, June 6.

The Brig Royal Charlotte, Capt. Taylor, arrived here laſt Thurſday from Annamaboe, on the Coaſt of Africa, after a Paſſage of 110 Days; by whom we have the affecting Intelligence of the the tragical Death of Capt. George Froſt, and Mr. William Grant, his Mate, both of this Town, which was perpetrated by the Slaves on board his Sloop, as ſhe lay at Anchor in the River Gaboone, in the Month of November laſt. Capt. Froſt having Occaſion either for ſome Wood or Water, ſent two of his Men and a Negro on Shore for that Purpoſe, himſelf, the Mate, and a Negro, who belonged to the Veſſel, remaining on board; and in the Mens Abſence he unfortunately permitted the Slaves, to the Number of about 60, to come upon Deck, who immediately ſeized him, with the Negro Man, and threw them overboard. Mr. Grant at this Time lay ſick in his Cabbin, unable to riſe. Capt. Froſt ſwam up to the Veſſel, in order to get on board again; upon which the Slaves threw a Lance at him, which penetrated his Body, where it remained, and with which he attempted to gain the Shore, but after ſwimming about Half the Way, he ſunk, and was ſeen no more. The Negro, who was thrown over with him, had the good Fortune to get ſafe aſhore.

The Slaves having now the Command of the Veſſel, they brought the Small Arms, with ſeveral Barrels of Powder, upon Deck; and on ſome Blacks coming off in Canoes to retake the Veſſel, the Slaves on board began firing with their Small Arms, but through Ignorance ſoon ſet the Powder on Fire, and in the Exploſion about 30 of them were deſtroyed. The Sloop was retaken 3 Days afterwards, when the moſt affecting Part of this Affair was diſcloſed; for on entering the Cabbin, the Corps of Mr. Grant was immediately diſcovered, with his Throat cut in a very ſhocking Manner, which was ſuppoſed to have been done as ſoon as Capt. Froſt and the Negro were thrown over.

A ſhort Time before Capt. Taylor ſailed, he heard that the Slaves on board a Sloop belonging to Liverpool, roſe upon the People, wounded the Mate, and got Poſſeſſion of the Veſſel, which afterwards ran aſhore and beat to Pieces.

NEW-YORK, June 16.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 30.

"This Day Mr. Wilkes Member of Parliament for Ayleſbury, Writer of the North Briton, is ſent to the Tower, by Warrant, for treaſonable Practices (In other Words, for libelling the Government): In the ſaid North Briton the King's Speech is attacked and treated with unreſerved Freedom; and the Warrant ſets forth that he has endeavoured to ſow Sedition, and alienate the Affections of his Majeſty's Subjects.

"It will make a terrible Noiſe, and no Doubt the City will be all on Fire upon the Occaſion; Lord Chief Juſtice Pratt has granted a Habeas Corpus, and Mr. Wilkes is to be brought, on Monday, to get Bail, if he can obtain it. He refuſed to apply to Lord Chief Juſtice Mansfield, as being a Scotchman. I do not imagine that ever Party Spirit carried People to greater Exceſſes, or was more violently agitated. It is probable Mr. Wilkes will remain in the Tower till the Parliament meets. The Duke of Bedford ſet out on his Return for France Yeſterday."

June 20. One or two Expreſſes have arrived here ſince our laſt from Albany, with Intelligence, it is ſaid, of the Outrages of the Indians on our Out Poſts and Back Settlements. And a Gentleman who left Albany laſt Thurſday, informs, that the Evening before, a Man arrived there, who had been wounded by the Indians at a Place called Green Bay [we ſuppoſe near Fort Detroit] which he ſaid was entirely deſtroyed; and that Fort Detroit muſt have been taken by the Time of his Arrival. He further added, that the Indians had taken nine Battoes, and killed and ſcalped three Men; and that there were many others miſſing, particularly Forty of the Queen's Independents, ſuppoſed to be cut off.

Several Companies of the Artillery Men embarked Yeſterday, ſaid to be ordered Upwards, to reinforce the Garriſons.

A Letter from Albany, dated the 15th Inſtant, ſays, "I am ſorry to inform you of the bad Succeſs of our Indian Traders: The French Indians have cut off all the Poſts and Battoes between Niagara and Detroit, and it is generally believed that Detroit is cut off alſo.—I am doubtful of the Conſequence.—We have an Account of one Evert Wendell being killed, and John Wendell mortally wounded; they were attacked 40 Miles above Niagara, having 9 Battoes, and 35 Men, out of which Number only 11 are returned to Niagara; they were attacked the 2d Inſtant. Lieut. Cuyler, with 100 Men, was attacked the 28th ult. within 50 Miles of Detroit, and has only brought to Niagara 30 of that Number."

To be SOLD by the Subſcriber, on the Eighth Day of July, for Sterling Caſh, or Bills of Exchange,

A CHOICE Tract of LAND, lying in Anne-Arundel County, about two Miles from Delaware-Bottom, where John Oliver, Deceaſed, formerly dwelt, containing Three Hundred and Ninety-three ACRES, it has exceeding good Improvements, and an Apple Orchard thereon, and will be Sold all together or in Parcels, as may beſt ſuit the Purchaſers, by

THOMAS OLIVER, Adminiſtrator.

ALL Perſons that have any juſt Claims againſt the Eſtate of Machen Bailey, late of Baltimore County, Deceaſed, are deſired to bring them in, that they may be adjuſted: And thoſe that are Indebted to him, are deſired to make immediate Payment, to

JABEZ BAILEY, Adminiſtrator.

WHEREAS the Subſcriber hath lately begun to erect a new Furnace for making Pig-Iron at the upper End of Seneca Falls, on Potowmack River Side, to be worked by a Spring, commonly called Elk Branch, making into the ſaid River, on the Virginia Side, which ſaid Work he expects to get in Blaſt by the middle of July next; and it being neceſſary to have chief Part of the Pig-Iron Metal manufactured into Bars, with the Caſting of Pots, Stoves, Ovens, &c. in order to eaſe the Expence of Land Carriage, ſhould there be a greater Quantity made than can be diſpoſed of in the back Parts of the Country; And as he hath already been at a great Expence in purchaſing Lands, Ore, &c. on both Sides of the ſaid River Potowmack, on the promiſing Proſpect of a convenient Place for a Set of Forges, Mills, &c. which happens at the Beginning of the ſaid Falls, and oppoſite the ſaid Furnace; but ſome Perſons being apprehenſive that the Navigation of the ſaid River would be prejudiced ſhould theſe Forges, &c. be built at the Place aforeſaid, he doth hereby give this public Notice, that it is his requeſt and deſire that two or three Gentlemen, acquainted with Affairs of that Nature, ſhould come and view the ſaid Falls, particularly the Place where the Works are to be erected, and he makes not the leaſt Doubt but they will be immediately convinced that what he Deſigns to do at the before-mentioned Place will be ſo far from prejudicing the Navigation that it will greatly contribute to aſſiſt it, as at preſent the Water being confined within narrow Limits, and having a conſiderable Fall, with a rocky uneven Bottom, it is rendered equally impaſſable either in dry Summers or Freſhes. The Subſcriber therefore hopes in a little Time to ſatisfy the Perſons whom it may concern that he has not the leaſt View or Intention to prejudice the paſſing of Craft up and down the ſaid River, ſhould it be thought practicable, on the raiſing a Sum of Money to open the ſame from the Great Falls to Will's Creek; but would gladly aſſiſt in every thing relative thereto, as ſoon as the ſame ſhall be taken into Conſideration.

He hereby alſo informs the Public that as there are many convenient Places for erecting of Iron Works, Merchant Mills, and Saw Mills, belonging to Gentlemen unacquainted with the Nature of ſuch Works, the Situation ſuitable as to Water, Wood and Ore, as well as in the Expences attending ſuch Buildings: For the better Encouragement of thoſe Improvements and more ſatisfaction to Gentlemen that have ſuch Conveniencies, the Subſcriber will, at any Time when deſired, wait upon any Perſon that would erect all, or any of thoſe Works, being well acquainted in every Branch of the ſame; and would alſo give a particular Eſtimate of the Expences in Building, and likewiſe the Profits which attend either Furnace, Forge, Merchant Mill, or Saw Mill, for a reaſonable Conſideration; and would undertake the whole Building at his own Expence, if they ſhould chooſe, rather than do it themſelves; being well acquainted with the Art of Workmen, and long Experience in thoſe particular Branches of Buſineſs, with the building of ſtrong Dams, and ſtopping any Stream of Water whatever, which he will contract to ſtand good at a certain Price as may be agreed on; likewiſe in the blowing of Stone above or under Water, a Specimen of which may be ſeen at the Falls of Occoquan, in Prince-William County, where all thoſe Works, of every Kind, are well completed, by

JOHN BALLENDINE.
